Houston Head Coach, Tom Penders had this to say after his teams one-point victory over Nevada on Tuesday night, "It was a heck of a game. It had a great tournament atmosphere, super building, super fans! This CBI is going to be something special and its nice to be one of the first 16 teams invited to this. It was like a national championship environment in here. This is going to be a great tournament and we are just proud to be part of it."

Valparaiso Head Coach Home Drew had this to say after his teams one point victory over Washington on Wednesday. "You know what, we love the CBI! We're very appreciative of the CBI and have a chance to lace up and play again, so we're excited about that."
