Fresno State advanced to the Championship Series by posting wins at UTEP (61-56) and home against Princeton (72-56) and Old Dominion (71-64). Siena, which has played all three of its CBI games at home, defeated Stony Brook (66-55), Penn State (54-52), and Illinois State (61-49).

After Monday's opener, the Championship Series will shift to Siena for Game 2 on Wednesday, April 2. Should a third game be necessary, it will be played at Siena on Saturday, April 5. Both Siena games will be played on campus at the Alumni Recreation Center.

CBS Sports Network will televise all three Championship Series Games of the CBI with Scott Graham and Bob Wenzel providing the play-by-play and analysis, respectively.

Past CBI champions include Tulsa, Oregon State, VCU, Oregon, Pittsburgh, and Santa Clara. Teams from nearly every major conference and mid-major conference have participated in the event. Eighteen teams have used the CBI to springboard to the NCAA Tournament the following year, while another 10 have gone on to the NIT. Five of the first six CBI Championship Series have gone the full three games.

CBS Sports Network is available across the country through local cable, video and telco providers and via satellite on DirecTV Channel 221 and Dish Network Channel 158.
