

Nevada comes back to down Montana

RENO, Nev. - Nevada did not take its first lead until 2:28 remained in the game and then held on to defeat Montana, 79-75.

Trailing 66-65, Nevada's Lindsey Drew hit a jump shot with 2:28 to play to give the Wolf Pack a 67-66 lead. It did not last long as Montana's Walter Wright put the Griz up 68-67 with a lay-up with 1:47 to go. But Drew again came through, this time hitting a three-pointer with 1:35 remaining to give Nevada the lead for good at 70-68.

Drew ended the game with 16 points and six assists. D.J. Fenner led the Nevada (20-13) with 24 points while Cameron Oliver had 17 points and eight rebounds.

Wright netted 14 points and handed out seven assists for Montana (21-12). Martin Breunig paced the Grizzlies with 20 points and eight rebounds. Jack Lopez also scored 20 points with Mario Dunn adding 10 points and six assists.
